Contraband Tobacco in England.

What becomes of the contraband tobacco seized by the customs? The early practice was to bury it. This senseless waste was suspended for a time by the happy idea of distributing the tobacco among the troop ships.

That did not last long, and next year we hear of the contraband being smoked in the "queen's pipe," a huge receptacle which could turn "hundreds of tons into smoke in a few hours." Again the misgiving of the waste troubled the authorities, and they took to regaling the criminal lunatics in certain government asylums. Any tobacco that was left over was ordered for the use of troops sent on foreign service. But that luxury seems to have been cut off once more, although the criminal lunatics still enjoy their pipes and cigars.

One attempt was made to throw the contraband when it was slightly damaged on the market, but this caused an outcry from the tobacco trade. The whole story is a pleasing tribute to the intelligence which administers the public service.—Macmillan's Magazine.

Hardy Angoras.

The ability of Angora goats to rough it is shown by the experience of N. D. Powers of Troy, N. Y., from whose herd of forty-one Angoras eight escaped to the mountains last fall and were supposed to have been lost. Last spring six of them were found in the mountain forests in good condition, having got a living by browsing on bark and twigs.

THEY NEVER FAIL.

That is What They Say About Them in Barre, And It is, Therefore, Reliable.

Another proof. Some more evidence. Barre testimony to swell the long list of advocates who endorse the old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convincing endorsement of the claims made for that remarkable preparation:

Joseph Barnier, stone cutter, Graniteville, says: "I do not want the residents of Barre or anywhere this paper circulates to think that Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at E. A. Brown's drug store, absolutely cured me of kidney complaint, but I want them to thoroughly understand that in all my experience with medicine and prescriptions said to cure disordered kidneys, I never received anything like the assistance I obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills. I tried so many different remedies and obtained so little success that it was only after they were strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been cured of a similar case to me that I commenced the treatment. My back grew stronger, my general health better, and unless I brought any exertion on the muscles of the loins I did not feel the continual lameness and aching. This, to a man who has given up all expectations of ever being helped by the use of medicine, is of considerable value and greatly appreciated."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
